

How does Nearmap decide which events to capture for Post-Catastrophe surveys?

Events are assessed based in criteria such as the scale of impact to communities, infrastructure, property, agriculture and industry and the geographical areas affected by the event. Decisions also consider whether an event is officially declared a disaster or emergency by federal and state government organisations and official industry bodies.

Learn more about post-catastrophe events.